Title IX – New Student Training Fall 2025

Amy Brown, J.D.
TITLE IX ATTORNEY

What is Title IX?

“No person in the United States, shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.”

- Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972

What is Title IX?

- Title IX is a federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs and activities and employment.
 - Covers not only equity in athletic programming, but all forms of discrimination based on sex.
 - Protects students and employees.
 - Applies to all institutions that receive federal financial assistance, either directly or indirectly.

What is Title IX?

- Sexual Harassment
 - Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be (1) severe, (2) pervasive, and (3) objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the recipient's education program or activity.
- Sexual Assault
- Quid Pro Quo
 - An employee of the recipient conditioning the provision of aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct

UNIVERSITY.

What Title IX is NOT

- Not only for athletics
- Not only for women
- Not only about sexual assault

What is Title IX?

- Environment free from harassment
 - Speech, behavior, images
- Schools Must:
 - Stop - the behavior
 - Prevent - the behavior from recurring
 - Remedy - the effects of behavior

How does Title IX pertain to me?

- Report a potential Title IX violation to the Title IX Office or any TMU faculty or staff member.
- All faculty and staff are required by law to report Title IX violations.
- Email: titleix@truett.edu

Sexual Harassment

2020 Title IX Regulations §106.30 Definitions. Sexual harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- (1) An employee of the recipient conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct;
- (2) Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the recipient's education program or activity; or
- (3) "Sexual assault," "dating violence," "domestic violence," or "stalking" as defined for VAWA purposes.

Sexual Assault

Sexual assault. An offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's Unified Crime Reporting ("UCR") program.

Rape – The penetration, no matter how slight, of the female sex organs with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.

Sex Offenses – any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.

- A. Fondling – The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.
- B. Incest – Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- C. Statutory Rape – Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent

What is Consent?

In both VAWA & the Title IX final regulations, the Department of Education considered and chose not to define consent.

- At minimum, the definition should recognize that:
 - consent is a voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity;
 - someone who is incapacitated cannot consent;
 - past consent does not imply future consent;
- Silence or an absence of resistance does not imply consent;
- Consent can be withdrawn at any time; and
- Coercion, force, or threat or invalidates consent.

Stalking

Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to –

- (A) Fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or
- (B) Suffer substantial emotional distress.

- Course of conduct means two or more acts, including but not limited to, acts in which the stalking directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.
- Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
- Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Dating Violence

Dating violence. Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim.

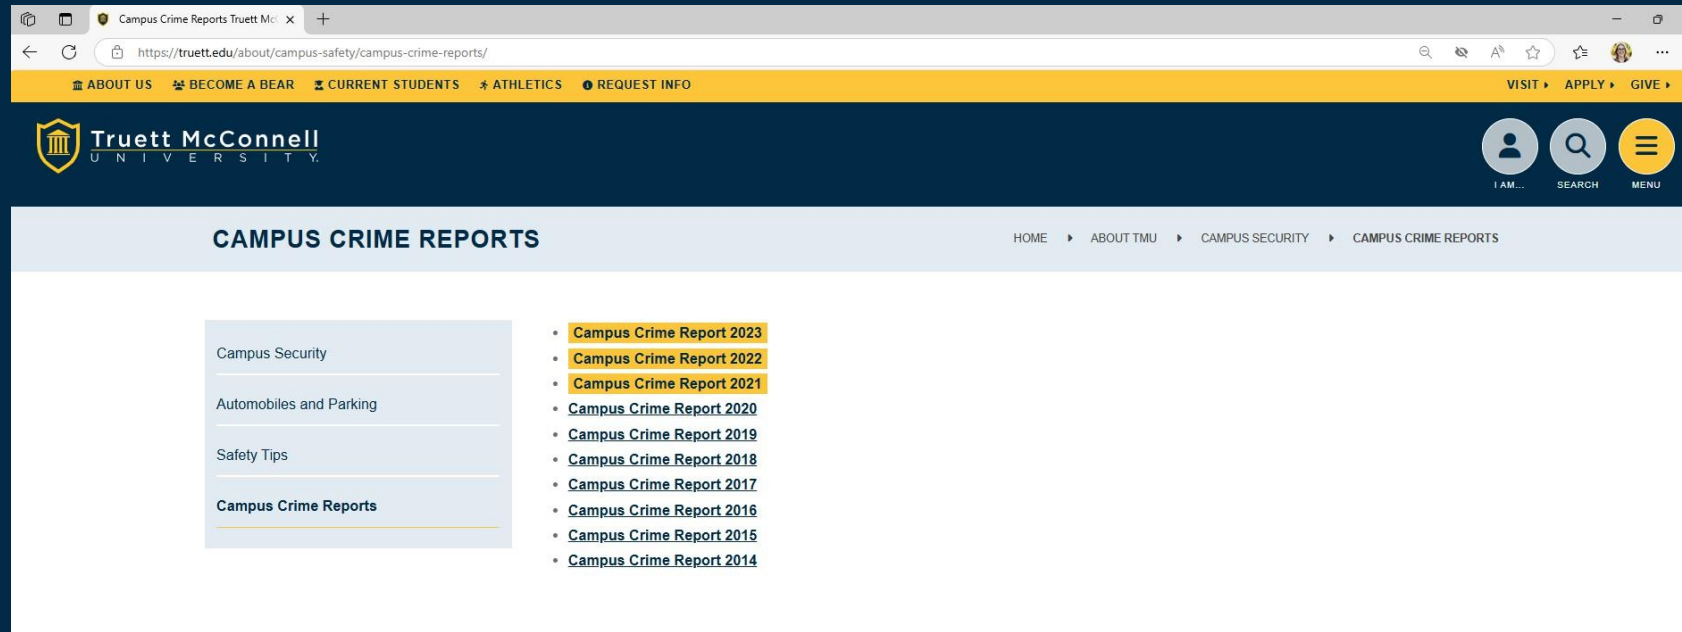

- (i) The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
 - For the purposes of this definition –
 - (A) Dating violence includes but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
 - (B) Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.
 - Any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

Domestic Violence

- Domestic violence. (i) A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed –
 - (A) By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
 - (B) By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
 - (C) By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
 - (D) By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred, or
 - (E) By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.
- Any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.
